I appreciate the difficulty that went into crafting a character like Promise. Notice that the negative, realistic sides of both these dual worlds are economic. Focusing instead on meaning, and catching the Princess: "by the spirit, pace, and tone of her speech, its qualities of parody and irreverence" instead does work quite adequately -- yet there's no question that a layer of the text is lost in such a rendering. Well worth the extra effort. Archived from the original on December 28, Retrieved 10 September Smart Car of America Forums.
